Case Summary:

According to a press report, in January 1993, the Kuwaiti Investment Organization (KIO) issued writs in the Spanish high court against Sheikh Fahad, Fouad Jaffar, Mr. de la Rosa and four other Spaniards who worked for the KIO. It accuses them of falsifying mercantile and public documents, fraud, manipulating prices and tax evasion, producing losses of well over 100 billion pesetas ($870 million). The KIO also sought a freeze on their assets to cover the alleged financial responsibilities. (Source: Justin Webster, "Kio's Spanish inquisition: The growing scandal of Kuwait's massive losses in Spain is exposing the dirty linen of one of the world's most secretive investment agencies and ringing government alarm bells. As the feud spills into the courts, Justin Webster looks at what lies behind the Grupo Torras disaster," The Independent (UK), January 10, 1993. Grupo Torras SA & Ors v Sheikh Fahad & Ors [1999] EWHC 300 (Comm) (24 June 1999) mentions a case in Spain, at 108.)
