Summary:

According to US Department of Justice Report to Congress, "Appendix C: Summaries of Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Enforcement Actions by the United States, January 1, 1998 - September 30, 2010," American Bank Note Holographics, Inc. at 114-115 and Information filed in US v. Joshua Cantor: On July 17, 2001, Cantor pleaded guilty to a 4-count information charging him with conspiracy to commit securities fraud, falsify books and records, lie to auditors and conspiracy to violate the FCPA. Cantor was the president of American Bank Note Holographics, and the company was approached by the Saudi Arabian Monetary Agency with the opportunity to be the supplier of the hologram for a commemorative Saudi Arabian bank note. In May 1998, one of ABNH's overseas agents informed ABNH that its bid would need to include "an additional sum to cover consultancy fees." ABNH eventually won the bid and consultancy fees in the amount of $239,000 were transferred to Bank Account #47377V at Credit Agricole Indosuez in Geneva, Switzerland held in the name of an entity "Satapco" and the Saudi foreign official, who served as Director of the Issues and Vaults Department of SAMA, received at least a portion of the $238,000 consultancy fee.
