Summary:

According to the Netherlands Phase 2 Report of the OECD Anti-Bribery Working Group (December 17, 2008): "As of October 2008, no foreign bribery cases had been brought before the Dutch courts. Nevertheless, the prosecution authorities have concluded out-of-court transactions with seven companies for paying kickbacks in the context of the Oil-for-Food Programme in Iraq, although the offence charged was the violation of sanctions legislation and not the foreign bribery offence." (para 2); " the Prosecution Department reports that it has concluded financial transactions (out of court settlements) with 7 companies for violating sanction legislation by paying kickbacks when implementing the Oil for Food Programme. Criminal gains have also been confiscated. In July 2008 a press release has been issued about these settlements. Together with the names of the companies (Alfasan International B.V., N.V. Organon, Flowserve B.V. , OPW Fluid Transfer Group Europe B.V., Prodetra B.V. Solvochem Holland B.V., Stet Holland B.V.) the settlements have been made public. For the following Oil-for-food transactions out-of-court settlements have been reached: 1. Alfasan International BV Woerden, fine: € 31.800,-- and confiscation € 10.183,55 2. NV Organon Oss, fine: € 381.602 3. Flowerserve bv te Etten-Leur, fine: € 76.274 and confiscation €180.260 4.
