Miercoles, 18 de Junio de 2008 > Press Release 501/08

SECURED BY SWISS JUDICIAL AUTHORITIES TO RAUL SALINAS DE GORTARI

The PGR achieved the return of all resources secured to Raul Salinas de Gortari, because the Swiss judicial authorities did not accredited its legal origin

The resources will be deposited in the Federation Treasury and they are going to be used for the benefit of the Mexicans

Is the biggest resources devolution to the Mexican State ordered by a foreign authority

In an unprecedented fact, the Attorney General of the Republic got from the Swiss Federal Instruction Judge, Paul Perradin, the devolution to Mexico more than 74 millions dollars, which will be deposited in the Federation Treasury and they are going to be used for the Mexico Government.

The Federal Instruction Judge is an independent judicial authority of a sovereign nation, so that, his decision is based strictly in the applicable law in that National State.

Based on the existing evidence in the Swiss case, Judge Perraudin, with full jurisdiction and autonomy resolved:

Order the devolution to the Mexico Government the amount of $75,678,482.31 USD (seventy five million six hundred seventy eight thousand four hundred eighty two dollars and thirty one cents), subject to possible changes arising from the Swiss procedure costs, (resulting little more than 74 millions dollars).

Order the liberation and restitution of $74,336,185.85 USD (seventy four million three hundred thirty six thousand one hundred eighty five dollars and eighty five cents) to LAGNESS INVESTMENT LIMITED, subject to possible changes arising from the Swiss procedure costs. This amount corresponds to the capital and the accrued interests since November 1995 to date.

To understand the procedure made for the Swiss Federal Instruction Judge to make this determination, next highlights more important points of the determination:

Since 1995 November, the Swiss judicial authorities seized some bank counts of different physics and moral persons which could be under control of Raul Salinas de Gortari.

By judicial resolution, in February 11, 2004, the Court of the Republic of Switzerland and Canton of Geneva recognized the property rights and/or generation of the society Lagness Investments Limited and its shareholder, Carlos Peralta Quintero.

Based on previous resolutions, July 6, 2007, the Society Lagness Investments Limited and its shareholder, Carlos Peralta Quintero, requested to Judge Perraudin the devolution of the capital and accrued interests, because they demonstrated its property and origin to the Swiss court.

December 19 2007, the Attorney General of the Republic requested the devolution of the seized resources to Raul Salinas de Gortari in Switzerland and England.

The Judge Perraudin analyzed the evidence and Swiss judgment of 2004, the Judge based in investigation Swiss that is legal the resources origin reclaim for that society and its origin come from U.S.

The Mexican State will use these resources in benefit to the Mexicans.
