MADRID, Feb. 28— A former Civil Guard chief accused of embezzling millions of dollars from the Government was flown to Spain today after a 10-month manhunt that ended in Laos, the authorities said.

The former official, Luis Roldan, who directed the paramilitary guard from 1986 to 1993, had fled Spain in April after a newspaper reported that he had embezzled about $40 million in state funds.

The Interior Minister, Juan Alberto Belloch, said today that Mr. Roldan was found in Laos and escorted on Monday to Bangkok, where he was formally arrested. He was flown overnight to Spain.
